

Traveling Scholar? Need Library Materials?

GWLA Reciprocal Circulation Program

Giving you access to materials in 32 academic research libraries in the Western U.S. as you travel or participate in distance education. Find the materials you need and check them out just like you were home in your own library. Membership in GWLA and affiliation with a research library may be required*.

For a list of participating libraries see page 2.

Each library determines its own authentication policies. Print off this page and bring it to the circulation desk to determine if you qualify.*
